The Bombay Nite has been proudly standing in Walton High Street since July 1990. In 2016 we find ourselves celebrating being voted East Anglia's Best Indian Restaurant. We were delighted to be nominated as finalists in the prestigious Tiffin Cup by our customers and we'd like to extend our heartfelt thanks to all of you who voted for us. Thank you also to all those of you who return to us again and again. If it's your very first visit – may we offer our warmest welcome to you and your guests.

Our team of chefs led by Jamal Uddin have been with us since we first opened our doors here in Walton and its testament to them that we found ourselves at the Tiffin Cup National Finals held at the House of Commons. Jamal held his nerve and cooked for 10 VIP judges including celebrity chef Ainsley Harriott. We had a fantastic night and were given a personal tour by our local MP Dr. Therese Coffey. Do try our "House of Commons Lamb Lagan" for yourself, if not there's plenty inside our new menu to tempt all kinds of tastes.

During the reign of the British Empire in India (the British Raj), the local cuisine was considered by the Europeans akin to what the Gods called 'ambrosia' - a delightful, heavenly and delicate dish.

So now take a closer look inside our menu and discover what Indian delicacies we have to offer. Let us take you on a journey uncovering the history of Indian food and you'll be sure to find some legendary dishes here too.

Finally, thank you for choosing the Bombay Nite we hope to see you again soon.
